

I am strongly opposed to any effort by the petitioners to weaken the Indiana law regarding unwanted telephone solicitations. If I want to have any contact with these financial institutions, I will call them. This law has been a godsend in reducing unwanted telephone solicitations. Please do not allow it to be weakened.